

SANSKRIT • FROM DAY ONE

Workbook + Answer Key

Retrieval practice, parsing drills, controlled composition, cumulative review, and a complete key for all 20 foundation lessons.

Use after each matching coursebook lesson • IAST is the required response script
• Devanāgarī is always accompanied by transliteration

PHASE 1 • PRINT-FRIENDLY EDITION • 2026

Contents

The PDF bookmarks mirror this table. Lessons are designed to be taken in order; reference sections can be revisited at any time.

Contents	2
How to use the workbook	4
Self-scoring	4
Writing Sanskrit	4
Worksheet 1: The sentence engine	5
Worksheet 2: Read IAST accurately	6
Worksheet 3: Stems and endings	7
Worksheet 4: Your first verbs	8
Worksheet 5: Masculine a-stems	9
Worksheet 6: Neuter a-stems	10
Worksheet 7: Week 1 integration	11
Worksheet 8: Person and number	12
Worksheet 9: Subject pronouns and singular endings	13
Worksheet 10: Object pronouns singular	14
Worksheet 11: Noun number	15
Worksheet 12: Complete present parasmaipada	16
Worksheet 13: asmad and yuṣmad	17
Worksheet 14: Cumulative error clinic	18
Worksheet 15: The pronoun tad	19
Worksheet 16: Interrogatives	20
Worksheet 17: Adjective agreement	21
Worksheet 18: Present ātmanepada	22

Worksheet 19: Roots and irregulars 23

Worksheet 20: Capstone 24

Answer key 25

Worksheet 1: The sentence engine	25
Worksheet 2: Read IAST accurately	25
Worksheet 3: Stems and endings	26
Worksheet 4: Your first verbs	26
Worksheet 5: Masculine a-stems	27
Worksheet 6: Neuter a-stems	27
Worksheet 7: Week 1 integration	28
Worksheet 8: Person and number	28
Worksheet 9: Subject pronouns and singular endings	29
Worksheet 10: Object pronouns singular	29
Worksheet 11: Noun number	30
Worksheet 12: Complete present parasmaipada	30
Worksheet 13: asmad and yuṣmad	31
Worksheet 14: Cumulative error clinic	31
Worksheet 15: The pronoun tad	32
Worksheet 16: Interrogatives	32
Worksheet 17: Adjective agreement	33
Worksheet 18: Present ātmanepada	33
Worksheet 19: Roots and irregulars	34
Worksheet 20: Capstone	34

How to use the workbook

Complete each worksheet after its matching coursebook lesson. Cover the coursebook and reference charts for the first attempt. Then correct in a different color and explain the rule that repairs each error.

Three-pass method

Pass 1: retrieve closed-book. Pass 2: check the answer key and annotate the rule. Pass 3: redo only missed items 24 hours later on blank paper.

Self-scoring

Result	Action
90-100%	Move on; redo guessed items tomorrow.
80-89%	Move on after correcting and orally explaining every error.
Below 80%	Reread the lesson and repeat the worksheet before adding new material.

Writing Sanskrit

IAST is the required writing system in this phase. Devanāgarī copying is optional unless an exercise specifically presents it. Always preserve diacritics: ā is not interchangeable with a, and ṣ is not interchangeable with s.

Worksheet 1: The sentence engine

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Label S, O, V: rāmaḥ sītāṃ paśyati.

2. Label S, O, V and translate: rāmaṃ sītā paśyati.

3. Why can the object come first without becoming the subject?

4. State the ordinary case of an active subject and a direct object.

5. Reverse the roles: rāmaḥ kṛṣṇaṃ paśyati.

6. Write the rule that determines an active verb's person and number.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 2: Read IAST accurately

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Mark the long vowels: rāmaḥ, sītā, paśyāmi, phalāni.

2. Explain the sound difference between t and ṭ.

3. Explain why Sanskrit th is not English th.

4. Read aloud three times: kṛṣṇaḥ phalaṃ khādati. Which four marked sounds need attention?

5. What is the underlying ending in phalaṃ khādati?

6. Write IAST from the paired Devanāgarī: रामः, त्वम्, पश्यति.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 3: Stems and endings

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Separate stem and grammatical form: rāma- rāmaḥ. What does each contribute?

2. Parse sītām by gender, number, and case.

3. Parse phalam two possible ways.

4. Name Sanskrit's three numbers.

5. Match root to present stem: gam, dṛś, vad - vada-, gaccha-, paśya-.

6. Explain the difference between declension and conjugation.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 4: Your first verbs

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Translate: gacchati, paśyati, paṭhati, likhati.

2. Negate: sā khādati.

3. What subjects can paśyati represent without an overt pronoun?

4. Translate both possible present nuances: saḥ gacchati.

5. Write “It does not fall.”

6. Why may Sanskrit omit asti in sā śiṣyā?

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 5: Masculine a-stems

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Give nominative and accusative singular: rāma-, bāla-, nara-, aśva-.

2. Translate: rāmaṃ kṛṣṇaḥ paśyati.

3. Reverse roles: bālaḥ aśvaṃ paśyati.

4. Which ending cues nominative singular masculine a-stem? Which cues accusative?

5. Correct the claim: “The first noun is always the subject.”

6. Parse every word: devaḥ naraṃ paśyati.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 6: Neuter a-stems

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Give nominative and accusative singular: phala-, pustaka-, jala-.

2. Identify the role of phalam: phalam patati.

3. Identify the role of phalam: bālah phalam khādati.

4. State the neuter rule in its strongest form.

5. Write “Water falls” and “She drinks water.”

6. Why is “every -am word is an object” false?

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 7: Week 1 integration

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Four-pass parse: aśvaṃ bālaḥ paśyati.

2. Parse and translate: pustakaṃ patati.

3. Parse and translate: phalaṃ bālaḥ na khādati.

4. Switch roles: rāmaḥ devaṃ paśyati.

5. What three clues distinguish a neuter -am subject from object?

6. Write your own three-word S-O-V sentence using today's vocabulary.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 8: Person and number

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Map Western 3rd/2nd/1st person to traditional labels.

2. Name the person-number cell: aham, yuvām, rāmau, yūyam.

3. Why does Sanskrit require nine present forms in one pada?

4. What number is used for exactly two?

5. Classify “two books” as person and number when it is a subject.

6. Draw and label the blank person-number grid.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 9: Subject pronouns and singular endings

Date: _____ Closed-book score: _____ / 6 24-hour score: _____

1. Complete: aham paśy____; tvam paśya____; sā paśya____.

2. Conjugate vada- for I, you, he/she/it.

3. Translate: likhāmi; na likhasi; paṭhati.

4. Why does paśyati not mark whether the subject is masculine, feminine, or neuter?

5. Correct: aham gacchati; tvam gacchāmi.

6. Omit the recoverable pronouns: ahaṃ vadāmi; tvaṃ paṭhasi; sā likhati.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 10: Object pronouns singular

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Pair subject/object: I, you, he, she, it.

2. Translate: "I see you; you see me."

3. Translate: "She sees him; he sees her."

4. Parse tvāṃ saḥ paśyati.

5. Why is tat identical as neuter subject and object?

6. Correct the phrase "object conjugation."

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 11: Noun number

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Decline rāma- in nominative and accusative, singular/dual/plural.

2. Decline phala- in nominative and accusative, singular/dual/plural.

3. Translate: rāmaḥ phale khādati.

4. Translate: rāmau phalaṃ khādataḥ.

5. Correct: rāmaḥ phalāni khādanti.

6. Write “The Sitas read books.”

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 12: Complete present parasmaipada

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Write the nine endings by rows: third, second, first.

2. Conjugate vada- in all nine cells.

3. Give gaccha- for they, you two, we.

4. Choose the verb: rāmau sītāṃ paśya__.

5. Choose the verb: yūyaṃ pustakāni paṭha__.

6. Explain why āvāṃ phalāni khādāvaḥ uses dual, not plural, verb agreement.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 13: asmad and yuṣmad

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Write first-person nominative and accusative across three numbers.

2. Write second-person nominative and accusative across three numbers.

3. Translate: āvāṃ yuṣmān paśyāvaḥ.

4. Translate: yūyam asmān paśyatha.

5. Write “You two see me.”

6. Name two short enclitic alternatives and state why this phase does not require their production.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 14: Cumulative error clinic

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Correct: aham paśyati.

2. Correct: tvām phalaṃ khādasi if “you eat” is intended.

3. Correct: rāmau sītāṃ paśyati.

4. Correct: vyaṃ phalāni khādanti.

5. Parse and translate: yuṣmān āvāṃ paśyāvaḥ.

6. Explain the ambiguity of rāmau.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 15: The pronoun tad

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Write masculine tad nominative/accusative across three numbers.

2. Write feminine tad nominative/accusative across three numbers.

3. Write neuter tad nominative/accusative across three numbers.

4. Translate: tau tāni paśyataḥ.

5. Write “Those women see him.”

6. List at least three possible analyses of isolated te.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 16: Interrogatives

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Choose subject question forms: masculine, feminine, neuter singular.

2. Choose object question forms: masculine, feminine, neuter singular.

3. Translate: rāmaṃ kaḥ paśyati?

4. Translate: rāmaḥ kaṃ paśyati?

5. Ask “What do you all read?”

6. Write the full nominative/accusative plural interrogatives for masculine and neuter.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 17: Adjective agreement

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Add nava-: ____ bālaḥ; ____ bālam; ____ bālā; ____ bālām.

2. Add nava-: ____ pustakam as subject and as object.

3. Parse phalaṃ madhuram.

4. Translate: sā navām bālām paśyati.

5. Correct agreement: navaḥ pustakam patati.

6. Explain the three coordinates copied by an adjective.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today's target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 18: Present ātmanepada

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Write the nine ātmanepada forms of labha-.

2. Give labha- for I, you two, they.

3. Translate: vyaṃ pustakāni labhāmahe.

4. Why is ātmanepada not simply “passive”?

5. Compare endings of paśyati and labhate.

6. Write “Those two obtain two fruits.”

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 19: Roots and irregulars

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Match: gam, dṛś, sthā, pā, bhū to present stems.

2. Conjugate gaccha- for he, you all, we two.

3. Write all nine present forms of as.

4. Translate: te śiṣyāḥ santi.

5. Write “We are students” and “You two are students.”

6. Why should a vocabulary card include present stem and pada, not only a root?

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Worksheet 20: Capstone

Date: _____ Closed-book score: ____ / 6 24-hour score: ____

1. Parse every finite verb in the capstone passage.

2. Translate: tau tāni na paśyataḥ.

3. Compose: “We two see them [masculine plural].”

4. Compose: “Those women read two books.”

5. Compose: “Who sees you all?”

6. Write a four-sentence micro-story using at least one dual subject, one pronoun object, and one negative verb.

Exit sentence

Write one Sanskrit sentence that uses today’s target correctly, then label its subject, object (if any), and verb.

Answer key

Equivalent natural English translations are acceptable. Sanskrit composition answers should preserve the required case, person, and number even if a defensible alternate word order is used.

Worksheet 1: The sentence engine

1. rāmaḥ S; sītām O; paśyati V.
2. sītā S; rāmam O; paśyati V. "Sita sees Rama."
3. Case endings mark the roles; position is not decisive.
4. Subject: nominative/case 1. Direct object: accusative/case 2.
5. kṛṣṇaḥ rāmaṃ paśyati.
6. The active finite verb agrees with its subject, not its direct object.

Worksheet 2: Read IAST accurately

1. rāmaḥ; sītā; paśyāmi; phalāni.
2. t is dental; ṭ is retroflex.
3. It is an aspirated dental stop: t plus a breath, not the fricative in "thin."
4. ṛ, ṣ, ṇ, ḥ/ṃ and aspiration in kh; any four correctly identified.
5. Accusative singular -am, appearing as -aṃ before the following consonant.
6. rāmaḥ, tvam, paśyati.

Worksheet 3: Stems and endings

1. The stem carries “Rama”; the ending/form marks masculine nominative singular.
2. Feminine, singular, accusative/case 2.
3. Neuter singular nominative or neuter singular accusative.
4. Singular, dual, plural.
5. gam gaccha-; dṛś paśya-; vad vada-.
6. Declension changes nominals for gender/number/case; conjugation changes verbs for person/number/tense-mood/pada.

Worksheet 4: Your first verbs

1. goes/is going; sees/is seeing; reads/recites; writes.
2. sā na khādati.
3. He, she, it, or one named third-person subject.
4. He goes / he is going; habitual meaning is also possible in context.
5. tat na patati.
6. The present copula “is” can be understood in a nominal/predicate sentence.

Worksheet 5: Masculine a-stems

1. rāmaḥ/rāmam; bālaḥ/bālam; naraḥ/naram; aśvaḥ/aśvam.
2. Krishna sees Rama.
3. aśvaḥ bālaṃ paśyati.
4. Nominative -aḥ; accusative -am/-aṃ.
5. Case identifies the role; Sanskrit can place an accusative object first.
6. devaḥ masc. nom. sg. subject; naram masc. acc. sg. object; paśyati present 3sg verb.

Worksheet 6: Neuter a-stems

1. phalam/phalam; pustakam/pustakam; jalam/jalam.
2. Nominative subject: the fruit is what falls.
3. Accusative direct object: the fruit is eaten.
4. Within each number, neuter nominative and accusative are always identical.
5. jalam patati. sā jalam pibati.
6. A neuter nominative singular also ends in -am.

Worksheet 7: Week 1 integration

1. Verb paśyati; subject bālaḥ; object aśvam; “The boy sees the horse.”
2. pustakam neut. nom. sg. subject; patati 3sg; “The book falls.”
3. bālaḥ subject; phalam object; “The boy does not eat the fruit.”
4. devaḥ rāmaṃ paśyati.
5. Verb transitivity/meaning, other case-marked words, and broader context.
6. Answers vary; e.g., sītā phalaṃ khādati.

Worksheet 8: Person and number

1. 3rd = prathama; 2nd = madhyama; 1st = uttama.
2. 1sg; 2du; 3du; 2pl.
3. Three persons × three numbers.
4. Dual / dvivacana.
5. Third person dual.
6. Rows: 3rd, 2nd, 1st; columns: singular, dual, plural.

Worksheet 9: Subject pronouns and singular endings

1. paśyāmi; paśyasi; paśyati.
2. vadāmi, vadasi, vadati.
3. I write; you do not write; he/she/it reads.
4. Finite present endings mark person and number, not gender.
5. ahaṃ gacchāmi; tvaṃ gacchasi.
6. vadāmi; paṭhasi; likhati.

Worksheet 10: Object pronouns singular

1. ahaṃ/mām; tvam/tvām; saḥ/tam; sā/tām; tat/tat.
2. ahaṃ tvām paśyāmi; tvaṃ mām paśyasi.
3. sā taṃ paśyati; saḥ tām paśyati.
4. tvām object; saḥ subject; paśyati 3sg: “He sees you.”
5. Neuter nominative and accusative are identical.
6. The object pronoun is declined into accusative; the verb is conjugated for the subject.

Worksheet 11: Noun number

1. Nom.: rāmaḥ, rāmau, rāmāḥ. Acc.: rāmam, rāmau, rāmān.
2. Both rows: phalam, phale, phalāni.
3. Rama eats two fruits.
4. Two Ramas eat a fruit.
5. rāmaḥ phalāni khādati.
6. sītāḥ pustakāni paṭhanti.

Worksheet 12: Complete present parasmaipada

1. -ti, -taḥ, -anti; -si, -thaḥ, -tha; -mi, -vaḥ, -maḥ.
2. vadati, vadataḥ, vadanti; vadasi, vadathaḥ, vadatha; vadāmi, vadāvaḥ, vadāmaḥ.
3. gacchanti, gacchathaḥ, gacchāmaḥ.
4. paśyataḥ.
5. paṭhatha.
6. āvām, the subject, is first-person dual; the plural object is irrelevant to active agreement.

Worksheet 13: asmad and yuṣmad

1. Nom.: aham, āvām, vayam. Acc.: mām, āvām, asmān.
2. Nom.: tvam, yuvām, yūyam. Acc.: tvām, yuvām, yuṣmān.
3. We two see you all.
4. You all see us.
5. yuvāṃ mām paśyathaḥ.
6. Any two of mā, tvā, nau, vām, naḥ, vaḥ; they have positional/case restrictions.

Worksheet 14: Cumulative error clinic

1. ahaṃ paśyāmi.
2. tvaṃ phalaṃ khādasi.
3. rāmau sītāṃ paśyataḥ.
4. vayaṃ phalāni khādāmaḥ.
5. yuṣmān 2nd acc. pl.; āvām 1st nom. du.; paśyāvaḥ 1du: “We two see you all.”
6. It can be masculine a-stem nominative dual or accusative dual; syntax determines the role.

Worksheet 15: The pronoun tad

1. Nom.: saḥ, tau, te. Acc.: tam, tau, tām.
2. Nom.: sā, te, tāḥ. Acc.: tām, te, tāḥ.
3. Both: tat, te, tāni.
4. Those two men see those things.
5. tāḥ taṃ paśyanti.
6. Masculine nominative plural; feminine nominative/accusative dual; neuter nominative/accusative dual.

Worksheet 16: Interrogatives

1. kaḥ, kā, kim.
2. kam, kām, kim.
3. Who sees Rama?
4. Whom does Rama see?
5. yūyaṃ kiṃ paṭhatha?
6. Masculine nom. ke, acc. kām; neuter nom./acc. kāni.

Worksheet 17: Adjective agreement

1. navah, navam, navā, navām.
2. navam pustakam in both roles; neuter nom./acc. are identical.
3. Both are neuter nominative singular; “The fruit is sweet.”
4. She sees the new girl.
5. navam pustakam patati.
6. Gender, number, and case of the noun it describes.

Worksheet 18: Present ātmanepada

1. labhate, labhete, labhante; labhase, labhethē, labhādhe; labhe, labhāvahe, labhāmahe.
2. labhe, labhethē, labhante.
3. We obtain books.
4. Forms such as labhate have an active meaning; passive uses a different stem construction.
5. 3sg parasmaipada -ti; 3sg ātmanepada -te.
6. tau phale labhete.

Worksheet 19: Roots and irregulars

1. gaccha-, paśya-, tiṣṭha-, piba-, bhava-.
2. gacchati, gacchatha, gacchāvaḥ.
3. asti, staḥ, santi; asi, sthaḥ, stha; asmi, svaḥ, smaḥ.
4. They are students.
5. vyaṃ śiṣyāḥ smaḥ; yuvāṃ śiṣyau sthaḥ.
6. The root may change visibly in the present, and its ending set must be known to conjugate it.

Worksheet 20: Capstone

1. paśyati 3sg P (twice); hasataḥ 3du P; patati 3sg P; paśyati 3sg P; khādati 3sg P; paṭhataḥ 3du P.
2. Those two men do not see those things.
3. āvāṃ tān paśyāvaḥ.
4. tāḥ pustake paṭhanti.
5. yuṣmān kaḥ paśyati? (masculine 'who').
6. Answers vary. Check every nominal for case/number and every verb against its subject.